Cover Story

NOTHING NEW

CARROLL STREET

NOTHING NEW CARROLL STREET

Douglas Whyte's stable so far has eight wins for the season and steadily marches to the upper range of the trainers' premiership. This Wednesday (3 Nov), Whyte's stable is presenting a troop of capable contenders.

NOTHING NEW is running for the Class 4 1650m start. It is the same trip in which the galloper managed to exhibit its merit and got a second. NOTHING NEW, previously trained by Michael Chang Chun-wai, had already made two fruitless attempts this term. It is now transferred to Whyte's stable and descended to Class 4 again. This advantage is likely to help Whyte strike an immediate victory.

Another prospective winner is CARROLL STREET. During its previous 1000m appearance at Sha Tin last month, CARROLL STREET was just about to make a strong finish when it was suddenly interfered with by a bumping match. Its most recent barrier trial was impressive. Its form is well maintained to salute. Whyte is likely anticipating a deferred victory when he saddles CARROLL STREET to try the 1200m city circuit.
